

I LOVE TO TURN THE SWITCH AND HAVE MY LIGHTS, JUST LIKE ANYBODY ELSE.

BUT AT WHAT COST?

LABADIE ENVIRONMENTAL ORGANIZATION, THE MISSOURI SIERRA CLUB, LITTLE BLUE RIVER COALITION, AND WORKING FILMS PRESENT

COAL ASH STORIES

Imagine being afraid to drink your water, take a bath, fish, or farm. These are the fears facing communities near coal ash pits in Missouri. You're invited to Coal Ash Stories, an event featuring four short films focused on coal ash, public health concerns, related policy, and ways that communities are responding. Come learn about the issues, participate in a community discussion, and meet filmmaker Rhiannon Fionn. This is a FREE public event. Share with friends and be sure to RSVP and mark your calendar.

KANSAS CITY
MONDAY, MARCH 16, 7PM

Westport Coffeehouse
4010 Pennsylvania Ave
Kansas City, MO 64111

hosted by: Little Blue River Watershed Coalition, LEO, MO Sierra Club, and Working Films
More on coal ash @ LEO's Facebook page: LabadieEnvironmentalOrganization(LEO)

➡ workingfilms.org/coalash

LEO

LABADIE ENVIRONMENTAL ORGANIZATION

